JOHN LONG'S NEW BOOKS

MEMORIES OF MANY YEARS: 1839-1922

By ARCHBISHOP SETON. Introduction by SHANE LESLIE, M.A. (Cantab), Author of "Henry Edward Manning: His Life and Labours," "Mark Sykes: His Life and Letters," etc. With Portrait of Author. 15s. net.

Archbishop Seton has come in contact with the leading Dignitaries of the Catholic Church, Royalty, and numerous Celebrities, literary and otherwise. His volume is a veritable storehouse of delightful reminiscences and sparkling anecdotes.

BY CAMEL & CARTO TO THE PEACOCK THRONE

By E. ALEXANDER POWELL, Author of "The Last Frontier," "Asia at the Cross Roads," etc. Folding Map in colours and profusely Illustrated. 15s. net.

This fascinating work records in entertaining style travel adventures in Syria, Transjordan, Persia, Kurdistan, Arabia, etc., during which the Author and his three companions traversed some of the least known and most interesting regions in the World.

UNDERSTANDING ITALY

By CLAYTON SEDGWICK COOPER, Author of "Understanding South America," etc. Profusely Illustrated. 15s. net.

An account of the Italy of the last fifty years. The Author is an expert observer, and in this work he has made a timely as well as a supremely interesting interpretation of that new Italy which has engaged so much of the world's attention while obtaining but little of its comprehension.

CASUAL WANDERINGS IN ECUADOR

By BLAIR NILES. Profusely Illustrated. 12s. 6d. net.

A fresh, entrancing survey of a country by a woman of cultivated intelligence and charm, beginning with the little-known run down the West Coast of South America and the "Run of Little Ports" to Guayaquil, and including the cities and the wilds of Ecuador.

ROME OR DEATH: The Story of Fascism

By CARLETON BEALS, Author of "Mexico, An Interpretation." Profusely Illustrated. 12s. 6d. net.

As an actual witness, Professor Carleton Beals here tells the clear story of the beginning of Fascism, the rise and triumph of the movement, its personalities, its principles, its intentions.

PLAYING THE GAME :

What Mr. Asquith in his book, "The Genesis of the War," Does Not Tell Us. By E.G. JELLICOE (Gray's Inn). 12s. 6d. net.

Among other things the book reveals the inner history of facts underlying both British and American Twentieth Century diplomacy and political policy as seen from an Englishman's standpoint. It shows what "playing the game" in Imperialism and Transatlanticism has done for Christianity, Civilization, and the world at large.

Messrs. John Long have now ready their New Catalogue, 112 pages, demy 8vo. It is a most interesting production, and embraces books of Travel, Biography, Fiction, Belles-Lettres, Poetry, the Drama, etc. Please write for a copy—

The SUMMA CONTRA
GENTILES of ST. THOMAS
AQUINAS IN FOUR BOOKS

TRANSLATED BY THE DOMINICAN
FATHERS OF THE ENGLISH PROVINCE

Uniform with the SUMMA THEOLOGICA

THE Publishers have pleasure in announcing the issue of an English translation of St. Thomas's shorter Summa.

The work will be published in four volumes, corresponding to the four books of the original. The first two volumes are now ready; the remaining books are in preparation, and will be issued as soon as possible.

The volumes are uniform in size and style with the English translation of the Summa Theologica, that great monument of industrious scholarship for which the English-speaking Catholic world already owes so great a debt to the Friars Preachers of this country.
